The Widow’s Last Coins

Picture the scene in the Temple when Jesus tells his disciples that the widow who gave her last coins gave more than anyone else. I sometimes find myself wondering why they didn’t tell her to keep her coins, perhaps suggesting that she needed them, not knowing what difficulties life might hold in store. But that’s not the way the story goes. Jesus praises her and allows her to make that great sacrifice of all that she had. What other priority could there be that Jesus would elevate above a sacrificial gift to God?

It is sometimes difficult to give. We live in a world that makes us feel insecure. Very few are able to take the widow’s plunge into the sea of uncertainty, or better said, the sea of faith. At times it seems like the more we have the harder it is to give. Mortgage payments, rent, car payments, groceries, utility bills, cell phones, cable, entertainment . . . life has a way of tying us down with obligation, commitment, self defined “needs” and a desire for convenience and enjoyment. Before we know it there’s not much left for the Church; not much time or money.

Tithing sometimes seems impossible. My wife and I decided the best way for us to get started was to do what she refers to us “baby steps toward tithing.” So much of our income was committed to other obligations, routine expenses, and concerns about the future. There was also pressure from the continuous drone of financial experts in the media warning that we might not have enough for retirement. I find it suspicious that most financial experts advise you to “pay yourself first” and the recommended saving amount is usually 10 percent. Aren’t we supposed to return the first fruits of our labor to God and isn’t the tithing amount traditionally 10 percent? Forces in the world are always at work to invert the truth, encouraging us to place ourselves before God.

Intimidated by tithing, we began with an amount that fit the budget and increased it by about 10 percent per year. We’re not there yet, but our goal is becoming more visible on the horizon. It is very true that God gives back with great abundance in countless ways.

The widow gave her last coins. That’s far more than we have given. I can only imagine the blessings the widow received from that moment of great sacrifice. We look forward to growing in faith and perhaps being blessed with the widow’s courage and amazing trust in God.

EVANGELISM IN ACTION: Take baby steps toward tithing.

O Lord our God, how wonderful Your name in all the earth!
Due to Easter Sunday falling on the fifth Sunday of March, the Knights of Columbus Corporate Mass and Luncheon have been moved to Sunday, May 5, 2013.

Singers welcome! Choir is open to third grade through adult. Please see Melanie Steinke for more details. Rehearsals are held for choir at 6:30 PM on Thursday evenings.

One day St. Teresa of Avila heard someone say, "If only I had lived at the time of Jesus... If only I had seen Jesus... If only I had talked with Jesus." To this she responded, "But do we not have in the Eucharist the living, true and real Jesus present before us? Why look for more?"

Stop looking, He is HERE! Please commit to a Holy Hour - come see Jesus, talk to Jesus, say the Rosary and present a bouquet of Aves to Our Blessed Mother in the Presence of Her Son, Our Savior Jesus Christ!

There is an urgent need for coverage for many hours. We humbly ask all parishioners to make a commitment to spend time with The Lord in Adoration, even if it is not one of the hours in urgent need. To schedule, please contact Kathy Hochenberger at Adorationholyhour@yahoo.com or 772-485-1787.

Hours in Most URGENT Need are:
Monday - 1AM - 2 AM*, 5PM – 6PM* and 11 PM – Midnight*
Tuesday - Midnight – 1AM* and 1 AM - 2AM*
Thursday - 2 AM - 3AM*
Friday - 8 AM - 9 AM*
The Eucharist

Jesus said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you; he who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is food indeed and my blood is drink indeed. He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him.” ~ John 6:53-56

In the Gospel of John, chapter six contains one of the most explicit teachings on the Eucharist made by Jesus. The chapter begins with a miracle of the multiplication of the loaves, a prefiguration of the Eucharist (see Jn 6:1-14). Immediately following the miracle, because of their lack of understanding, the people intend to make Jesus king. For this reason, Jesus withdraws to the hills (see Jn 6:15). Noticing that he has gone away, the people begin seeking Jesus in Capernaum (see Jn 6:24). When they find him, Jesus teaches them the meaning of the miracle. He says, “[T]he will of my Father is that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him should have eternal life” (Jn 6:40), because he is the “true bread from Heaven” (Jn 6:32) which “gives life to the world” (Jn 6:53). Not only must they believe in him, but also they must eat and drink his Flesh and Blood: “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat...”

The Eucharist completes Christian initiation, because it is the most intimate union with Christ. Although Jesus is present in the other sacraments, Jesus is fully present in the Eucharist, that is, he is present Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity in the...
Eucharistic species (the consecrated bread and wine). For this reason, the Eucharist is called the Real Presence. Also, for this reason, the Eucharist is the source and summit of all Christian life, a participation in the life in Heaven given to those who believe in him while he is still on earth. In other words, every aspect of the Christian faith leads toward and flows from this sacrament, which is nothing other than Jesus himself. In his love, God also gave to us the Third Commandment, "Remember to keep holy the sabbath day." This commandment, which in Pope John Paul II's words is "a defining and indelible expression of our relationship with God" (On Keeping the Lord's Day Holy 13), is transferred in the New Covenant from the sabbath (the seventh day, or Saturday), to the Lord's Day (Sunday) because Sunday was the day when Jesus rose from the dead. We therefore recall God's saving works by honoring the "new day of creation," the weekly Easter. Participation in Sunday Mass is obligatory — a participation which is necessary for the People of God to live as God created them and to praise him rightly as he deserves to be praised. Furthermore, through the Holy Spirit, this required Sunday participation has also become the first precept of the Church, "You shall attend Mass on Sundays and on holy days of obligation and rest from servile labor" (CCC 2042) (see handout on The Sabbath and Sunday Worship).

Names for the Eucharist

The sacrament of the Eucharist is known by several different names, each revealing some aspect of the sacrament. The name "Eucharist" is drawn from the Greek word eucharistein, meaning "to give thanks." This word is found in two of the Last Supper accounts, the Gospel of Luke and St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians. In the Gospels of Matthew and Mark, a related Greek word eulogein, meaning "to bless or praise," is used. Since the Eucharist is celebrated as a community, the celebration is sometimes referred to as the "Eucharistic Assembly."

The name "Lord's Supper" references both the Last Supper and the Heavenly Banquet. During the Last Supper, Jesus first instituted both Holy Orders and the Holy Eucharist when he took, broke, and blessed the bread and wine and instructed the apostles to do this in memory of him (see Lk 22:19-20). The Heavenly Banquet anticipates "the marriage supper of the Lamb" (Rev 19:9), when the entire family of God will all be present in glory.

The name "Breaking of the Bread" points to the fact that the Eucharist is prefigured by the Jewish Passover meal that also had a "Breaking of the Bread." When Jesus appeared to the two disciples on the Road to Emmaus, it was not until he broke the bread that "their eyes were opened and they recognized him" (Lk 24:31). This name was also used by the first Christians (see Acts 2:46; Acts 20:7, 11).

The names "Holy and Divine Liturgy" or "Most Blessed Sacrament" state the truth that the Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life. It is the sacrament to which all other sacraments lead, because Jesus is really present, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

In this modern age we as Catholics are challenged to take up the reins of the New Evangelization by communicating Christ and the Gospels through all the means of communication available. A special collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign and the Catholic University of America will be taken in our parishes the weekend of May 11th and 12th. Your support of this collection greatly assists the Church as she participates in the New Evangelization.

The Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) collection responds to the national and local communications needs of the Church. The Diocese of Palm Beach uses its share to support local communication efforts, like the television Mass and the diocesan newspaper. On a national level, the CCC supports the development and production of a wide range of media initiatives that are carried out by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

The Catholic University of America is unique as the National University of the Catholic Church under the direction of the United States Bishops and chartered by the Vatican. Through the University’s Parish Scholarship Program, annual scholarships valued at $4.5 million are provided to worthy students.

As we combine the tested methods of education with the new methods of media communication, the Church strives to implement the New Evangelization in our Diocese, our society and our Nation. It is my sincere hope that you will consider making a contribution to support the communication efforts of the Church in spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

With gratitude and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,
