FAITH FORMATION COMMITMENT

I understand that Faith Formation is a way of Christian Family Life, not just a single event or a sacrament received. In order to fulfill the promises I made at my child's Baptism, I commit to model a Christian, sacramental life with my family by following the Precepts of the Church. These are from The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC 2041-2043):

- 1 "You shall attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation."
 - 2 "You shall confess your sins at least once a year."
 - 3 "You shall humbly receive your Creator in Holy Communion at least during the Easter season."
 - 4 "You shall keep holy the holy days of obligation."
 - 5 "You shall observe the prescribed days of fasting and abstinence."
- "The faithful also have the duty of providing for the material needs of the Church, each according to his abilities."

I further understand that "Family catechesis precedes, accompanies, and enriches other forms of instruction in the faith. Parents have the mission of teaching their children to pray and to discover their vocation as children of God. The parish is the Eucharistic community and the heart of the liturgical life of Christian families; it is a privileged place for the catechesis of children and parents." (CCC 2226) To support that effort, I promise to ensure my family and I will:

- Adhere to the Precepts of the Church.
- Take on the parental and familial responsibilities of faith formation and Sacramental preparation.
- Teach and model Christian Family Life inside and outside the home.
- Ensure my child(ren) attend all classes, events, practices, rehearsals, retreats, pilgrimages, etc.
- Nurture the continued formation of my own family, as well as our parish family in all ways I am able.
- Dress and act appropriately for all activities, further modeling Christian virtues (Chastity, Temperance, etc).
- Support the parish, diocese, and Church, with the gifts God has given me and my family (time, talent, treasure).
